Devon Kearney

Devon Kearney is a photographer who was born partially colorblind and has adapted his disability in seeing color to enhance his photographs. He wants to show people how he would see the world. Devon graduated San Francisco State University with a Bachelors of Art with an emphasis on studio art. He is a local photographer with a passion for portraits who strives to create photographs that you look back on and still feel connected to years later.

Education

2013, Bachelors of Art, San Francisco State University emphasis on Studio Photography, San Francisco California. Experience:Freelance event, wedding, and portrait photographer.

Photography Instructor:

San Francisco Rec and Park 2013-Current

Personal Photography instructor 2015-Current

Exhibitions:2015 Silken at the Pacific Coast Brewery (Solo)2013 Flash Me: An Exhibition of Photography, Martin Wong Gallery, SFSU Fine Arts building. (Group)2013 Senior Art Exposition, SFSU Fine arts building, San Francisco. (Group)

2013 Zenith, Martin Wong Gallery, SFSU Fine Arts building. San Francisco. (Group)

2013 McLaren Lodge Spring 2013 Staff Show, Harvey Milk Photo Center, San Francisco California. (Group)

2013 A-B Art From Transit, Caesar Chavez Student Center, The Art Gallery, San Francisco State University, San Francisco CA. (Group)

If you have any questions about rates please email me at devon@devonkearney.com and I will get back to you as soon as possible.